

BRBHA Legacy Award Criteria and Background:

The BRBHA will consider long time BRBHA members for nomination to the distinction of the Legacy Award. Eligible members include: players, coaches, manager, officials, executive members, or members who have served in other volunteer capacities over several years.

Past or present members of the BRBHA who have made a substantial contribution to the BRBHA during the time of their membership. Such a contribution would consist of activities such as:

1. Excellence in achievement in a hockey-related venture
2. A unique or noteworthy contribution
3. Contributing a substantial amount of time to a broad range of activities, improving the reputation of the BRBHA, or the development of a lasting legacy
4. Those nominated will have demonstrated a lasting and ongoing interest and involvement in the long-term success of the BRBHA.
5. Continued involvement past the time they or their children played in BRBHA.

